Mission: To help South Asian women achieve their goals to become inspiring leaders and to develop their potential through a foundation of support and mentorship. The spirit of IWL is about excellence in leadership, advocating for change, educating, and raising awareness.

As South Asian women, we have accomplished a great deal in spite of the many challenges we face, both individually and as a group. We benefit by sharing our similarities of culture and gender, and our differences in professions, life stages, and perspectives. By drawing upon shared learning, we reach our greatest potential as a community, thus providing a foundation for future South Asian women leaders.
