

Shefali Razdan Duggal

PRESS CLIPS

International Impact

Text by Mala Vaishnav

Published: Volume 20, Issue 6, June, 2012

They are high-profile achievers of Indian origin who have set the public imagination alight in the corners of the globe where they live – whether it is in politics, films or business. Verve takes a look at six women who are constantly setting new benchmarks of success and grabbing headlines AROUND THE WORLD

shefali RAZDAN DUGGAL

41

POLITICAL ACTIVIST

Born in Haridwar, she is an example of the 'Rah Rah' American dream. Raised in Pittsburgh and Cincinnati and married to childhood chum Rajat Duggal, the natty dresser, most recently voted the most influential woman in California by the National Diversity Council, is among the top fund-raisers for Barack Obama's re-election campaign, having already raised almost a hundred thousand dollars. A member of Obama's Presidential Partners, National Finance Committee and Northern California Finance Committee, Duggal was also a vociferous supporter of Hillary Clinton's campaign in 2008.

Has been watching: News programmes on TV since babyhood.

Must listen to: A Sanskrit shloka every morning.

Serious about: Gymming.

Success is about: Striking a balance.